Ms. Besley,

Good Morning and thank you for your email. ORS will make any filings in this docket on or before September 14, 2021.

As to the issue of the late filings, ORS does not have any objection at this time. The delay has not resulted in any undue burden to ORS; however, we agree with your recommendation below concerning any future filings made after the deadlines set by the Commission.

Thank you and we look forward to seeing the Commissioners, staff, and the Applicant on Wednesday.

Kind regards,

Subject: Public Service Commission Docket No. 2021-188-T

Good morning, Parties:

In reviewing Docket No. 2021-188-T, set for a virtual hearing on Wednesday, September 15, 2021, it appears that all is in order for the hearing. The only outstanding matter is the opportunity for ORS to file any direct testimony and exhibits by September 14, 2021.

I also wanted to make certain there was no objection from ORS regarding the filing of the Applicant's testimony, exhibits, and shipper witness affidavit on September 8 and 9, after the September 7 deadline established in the June 10, 2021 correspondence from the Clerk's Office. There was a discussion with the Clerk's Office and permission was granted to file the shipper witness affidavit after the technical deadline. We would recommend in the future the filing of a motion to request leave to file documents after any deadlines set by the Clerk's Office. Thank you for your understanding.

We look forward to the hearing on Wednesday.

Yours sincerely,

Sharon Besley
